About Fresh Truck

We're on a mission to radically impact community health in Boston by celebrating community food culture and getting fresh food to those who need it most. Fresh Truck operates two renovated school buses as mobile food markets, stocked with fresh fruit, vegetables, and healthy snacks. We partner with health centers and other community organizations to combine their services with access to affordable, healthy food. We love Boston, we're obsessed with our mission and we're committed to meaningful, long-term social impact.

Job Description

Market Managers are the face of Fresh Truck in our communities, they make the shopping experience for our customers delightful and unique. This role requires a diverse skill set blending food purveyor, truck driver, and customer service representative. We're looking for someone with an unrelenting passion for community building and food.

What you'll do

- Drive a full-size, 39ft school bus
- Manage daily mobile market operations from bus loading/unloading, inventory management, restocking, to cleaning
- Create an inviting shopping experience through engaging customer service
- Support other Fresh Truck initiatives such as community outreach, customer surveys, and operations process improvement

Who you are

- An excellent driver, accustomed to driving in an urban environment; strong preference for individuals with experience driving box trucks and large vehicles
- Grit - you're willing to get your hands dirty, comfortable with some heavy lifting and will stop at nothing to make things happen
- Embrace working within diverse community settings and with a strong sense of social justice; being multilingual (Spanish, Haitian Creole, Portuguese, Cantonese) is huge a plus

Requirements

- Driver's license with clean driving record for the past 3 years
- Ability to lift ~50lb on a regular basis
- Positive attitude and willingness to learn

Compensation and Benefits

- Starting pay at $35k with health insurance
- Free groceries every shift
- Work day in and day out to make Boston a healthier city
